

News for the Pews

Blessings, Harold!

12 years of military service.
587 Airborne Ranger jumps.
25 years of construction work.
Harold lost everything when his legs gave out.

Harold has been at the mission for 1 year. In that year he has had one hip replacement surgery and has the other hip scheduled for surgery. "This place does a lot of good things for guys that come here. They have helped me tremendously. God and I parted ways at some point during my two tours in Vietnam, but I've come a long way and I'm starting to go to St. Mary's again."

Harold gave a special shout out to Daniel Bhandari for helping the guys find jobs and get back on their feet. "He tries really hard and is doing a great job!" After Harold recovers from hip surgery #2, he plans to move into his own place, and get back into the construction business.
