HOME FOR THE HOLIDAYS

"I don't know what we would have done," says Felicia now. She and her family moved into their new apartment just before Thanksgiving and are very thankful!

Moving back to Michigan to be near relatives, Felicia's family found themselves without a place to stay and unable to find employment or a home. Never needing to stay in a shelter before they weren't sure where to go. Upon calling the Mission to inquire, they were welcomed with open arms. "I didn't want the kids sleeping in the car. With snow coming, we had to get a roof over our heads," recalls Felicia. But it wasn't easy.

Felicia and her husband have always been responsible and able to take care of themselves. At first, she was embarrassed they needed to stay in a shelter. "We are a regular family. We don't have any addiction problems or a history of bad choices. I'm thankful for the help we received at the Mission from the staff there. Judi and Sue were my strength."

Dad is still searching for employment, however, their trust in God to provide for their family hasn't diminished. Felicia says "He has always worked with the boys with Scripture cards. He reads the verse and questions and the boys use their Bible to find the answers." She smiles as she makes the comments. It's obvious it makes her mother's heart very happy.
