

News for the Pews

"I appreciate the warm and clean bed, clothing, and three meals a day," says Christine as she talks about being at GSRM. She and her son, Criss, came to the mission in March and are both attending the Life Skills classes.

CARE & COMPASSION

Through tears, Christine tells of how a simple error on paperwork led to she and her son losing their home. "We finally had a beautiful home," she remembers. But Criss reminds her, "Mom, God is letting this happen for a reason. He has a plan."

Mother and son each have their own goals set. Christine, a certified manicurist, is interviewing with area salons and seeking new clients. Both are happy to be here where they have found new hope. "Thank you to those who support the mission and enable us to have this opportunity. It really shows people do care," smiles Christine.
