

News for the Pews

If you attended our Anniversary Dinner last month, you heard Adam's story in video-in person. With the help of our church partners, the Rescue Mission exists and is able to help Adam and others find real hope. Seeing God's love for him from those he encountered at the Mission and at his now home church, Adam no longer battles addiction and is able to mentor others.

Adam has been reunited with his family. He and his wife are serving in their church and raising their beautiful daughter in God's house around loving people.

Adam is now the youth pastor at Bay City First Church of the Nazarene. "I owe everything to the Mission and my church. I don't know where I would be today without them."
