

News for the Pews

This is Marquita. Eager to learn, dedicated worker, and now she has new skills for a new dream. Before coming to GSRM, Marquita had to overcome a lot of moving around, abandonment, and much abuse to get to this point. Currently she's not able to be with her children due to different circumstances. In the past, she fell into drug and alcohol abuse for a period, and literally lived under a bridge through an entire pregnancy.

Getting to the point she was ready to ask for a little help, Marquita came to the Mission. She does say, "I didn't think I would get this much help." Just celebrating her 30th birthday, she is looking forward to using the skills she has learned at the Mission in the Jobs for Life program and Vocational Training. "Marquita has demonstrated an infectious, enthusiastic drive to resolve her homelessness situation," says Craig Laszlo, GSRM Operations Director.

She hopes to have her own Janitorial Care business to go along with her new apartment that she is now enjoying. "Thank you for everything."
